Growth

Mu Theta initiated 3 members this month. Nicholas Passiglia, Cole Smith, and honorary Daniel Mingle.

Greek Weekend

The Fraternities and Sororities at Lycoming College participated in Greek Weekend, planned by the presidents, Tabitha Giacalone, and Dean Hummel. TKE won the banner contest, played capture the flag, participated in a Greek Wide community service event to preserve women's history (90 hours in total for all of the fraternities and sororities), and planned out a formal brunch. It was amazing to unify all of the Greek organizations for the weekend.

Active Brother Highlights

Thane Goetz

Frater Thane Goetz completed 32 hours of community service over spring break while participating in the following projects: Celebrate our Seniors at Vocatio Career Prep HS, The Beautiful City at Furness HS, Philly Literacy Mentor Project at Sankofa Freedom Academy, and Revitalizing with Green at Central HS. Thane worked hard to foster interaction between senior citizens and youth, teaching time management and strategizing, starting the process of improving elementary literacy, and revitalizing vacant spaces into community gardens.

Active Brother Highlights

Aiden Brown and Birdie Hadfield

Frater Aiden Brown started his concert season off strong in performing with the Lycoming College Community Orchestra (with laviere Birdie Hadfield) and acting as principal violist with the Young Artist Baroque Orchestra.

Active Brother Highlights

CJ Zortman

Frater CJ Zortman finished his painting series: “Endangered” and one of the paintings became the cover of a north central PA newspaper!
