Queen of the Kitchen: How Chef Kendra Made TKE Her Own

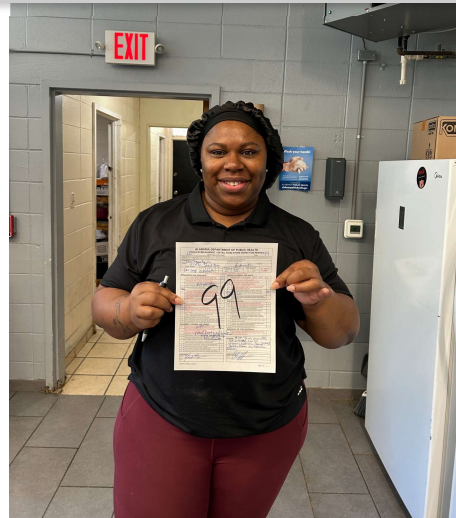

Since 2020, Chef Kendra has been the heart of the TKE kitchen. She has always brought such a bright and motherly spirit to the house, and she quickly won over the brothers, parents, and alumni with her cooking and her genuine care for everyone in the chapter.

step out on her own and take full charge of the TKE kitchen. Today, she manages every detail—planning, cooking, and keeping the ship running smoothly—all by herself. The brothers have loved the new menus with higher quality foods, better menus, and an overall increase in happiness by both the brothers and Kendra for having such a great set-up.

The brothers are grateful not only for the meals she serves, but also for the warmth and dedication she brings to the house every day. Kendra isn't just our chef—she's family, and we're proud to celebrate her as an essential part of TKE (Just like Ermon was to the more "seasoned" Teke's)!

Thank you for all you do and have done, Miss Kendra!
